

Anyone under 18 that's not traveling with both of their parents needs to have an international letter of consent signed by parents and have it notarized. Even if one parent will be travelling with the minor, the Letter of Consent needs to be signed by the other parent.

Once you do this please send us a copy. You wouldn't actually sign it until you are with a notary. It needs to be signed within 30 days of travel. Usually your bank will have a notary and provide this service free to their costumers.

Thanks,
Jason

Here's how you can answer the "Accompanied By: (Name of Adult)" (to be travelling with child who's under 17) portion of the form...

If there is an adult from you church or specific group put them or otherwise you can list "Paul & Yuri Huntington"
